You may be able to reduce your federal income tax liability by claiming an American Opportunity or Lifetime Learning Credit (education credit) if "qualified tuition and related expenses" were paid to the University by you or on your behalf in a given tax year. Use IRS Form 8863 to determine the amount of the credit. The information provided below is intended to assist in those calculations. Contact the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 or a tax advisor for information regarding your eligibility and/or the calculation of the education credit amount. The University cannot provide such assistance. If you are a dependent on another person's return (such as a parent's return) you cannot claim either credit, but that person may be eligible. Provide this information to that person.

Years listed indicate what 1098-T statements are available. Click the "View 1098-T" hyperlink to view the 1098-T Tuition Statement. Note that this will contain the last four digits of your SSN. Click a box amount to see the transaction activity included for it. If there are no hyperlinks, detail information is not available. Contact your Cashless office if you need more information.
